OFFICIAL WASHINGTON PREPARES FOR WORST IN LABOR WARFARE

Every Department of Government Being Made Ready for Emergencies---Optimism Changing To Concern

Washington, July 13.—Face to face with the ugly fact that the rail strike is hourly becoming more serious, that wholesale tie up of transportation is just around the corner, and that labor is "digging in" for a show down fight which will determine the life or death of the railway labor board, officials in Washington began to lose today some of the optimism that so far has marked the government's attitude in the situation.

Devalera Reported Dead
But Rumor Is Not Credited

Dublin, July 13.—The recently elected Irish parliament today was prorogued for fourteen days in order to enable members, who are fighting in the Irish free state army to continue with the colors.

Eamon DeValera has again dropped out of sight and it was rumored that he was dead but this rumor is not credited by any of the free state officials.

The Irish provisional government issued an official statement saying that many members of parliament are engaged in restoring order and that it is for the best interests of the country for them to continue in this patriotic service. The manifesto warned the people in the following words:

"We are armed groups, who are taking upon themselves the responsibility for making war against the Irish people, permitted to remain under arms to continue their unnatural activities, this country (Ireland) would be faced with economic ruin and famine, as well as the return of the British."

Regular claim that the situation in the south is satisfactory. However, the irregulars claim to have won a series of successes north of Cork, which gives them control of part of the counties of Kerry, Wexford, Cork and Mayo.

Sniping was reported from Limerick.

Limerick was the seat of the rumor of DeValera's death. According to the report, a mysterious coffin, draped with the Irish republican colors and under guard of irregular troops, was lying in state in a church. The lid of the coffin had been screwed down and the corpse could not be seen.

The irregulars claim the capture of two free state generals in county Limerick—Hays and Connelly.

Wire communication has been cut between this city and Cork. The strict isolation of Cork is causing consternation here as it is not known what is taking place. Up to noon not even a traveller had arrived from Cork to bring any news of events in that part of Ireland.

Members of more than 100 lodges will be in line.

Theo. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, William Wallace Mountain, retiring grand exalted ruler of the order, and Grand Exalted Ruler elect J. Edgar Masters will accompany "Uncle Joe" at the parade's head.

Roosevelt later will deliver an address from the reviewing stand.

NEWBERRY AGAIN UNDER FIRE FOR SEAT IN THE SENATE

Senator Breaks Long Silence and Declares He Does Not Fear Result Of New Investigation Believed Coming.

Washington, July 13.—Senator Truman H. Newberry, Republican of Michigan, faces the inevitable necessity of standing trial again before the tribunal of his colleagues for possession of his seat in the senate, it was learned to-day.

A new anti-Newberry movement has been launched "under cover" following the defeat of two strong Newberry supporters in recent Republican primaries.

Sponsors of the movement, it was learned, intend to force a second Newberry trial, similar to the second Lorimer trial, as soon as the new congress convenes next March.

Newberry won his seat last January by a margin of five votes. The nomination of one more anti-Newberry Republican for the senate, it was said would place Newberry's seat in absolute jeopardy as it would wipe out his margin and give his opponents a lead of one vote.

Newberry today broke a long silence on his case to declare he did not fear the result of a new senate investigation.

"There are always politicians who, to create publicity for themselves will attack any public servant," Newberry told International News Service, "I don't doubt but that there will be a senator or two elected next fall who will attempt to reopen the fight to unseat me. I like my public were here and naturally I will fight to retain my seat in the senate."

"The attack on me are based on the amount of money expended in my primary campaign. No proof ever was submitted to show any of it was ex-

PASSENGER TRAINS ARE REMOVED IN CINCINNATI AREA

Eight In and Out of Queen City Taken Off Schedule.

Cincinnati, July 13.—Eight passenger trains running in and out of Cincinnati were ordered taken off Wednesday night as a result of the strike situation. Six of them were on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and the other two on the Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Western, running through this city and Indianapolis. Two of the B. and O. trains annulled runs between Cincinnati and New York, two between this city and St. Louis and the other two from here to Dayton, O., and return. At the same time it was announced here that two other B. and O. trains running between Wheeling and Columbus and Sandusky and Newark, respectively, had been taken off.

While railroad officials still maintain that traffic is not seriously impeded by the walkout, trains continue to run farther and farther behind schedule. Reports received here regarding the situation at Corbin, Ky., are to the effect that the Louisville and Nashville is constructing a camp there for several hundred employees and guards they expect to import in order to clear up existing congestion in the main yards there. Approximately fifty dead locomotives and 3,600 loaded cars are held up as a result of the situation at Corbin where a general boycott has been declared against strikebreakers and it is feared that serious trouble will result from the railroad's determination to establish tent camp and commissary there. Officials of the L. and N. were unable to state how long it would be before they would have the camp ready.

URGES FIGHT TO START

Columbus, July 13.—Declaring that individualism and sectionalism are taking the place of national unity, Bishop William Bell, Harrisburg, Pa., in an address before the Ohio Ministers, gathered for the summer session of the school for rural pastors at Ohio State University, urged his audience to fight the "vicious" industrialism, which destroys all consideration of the welfare of the masses, breeds individualism and is threatening to eliminate national unity and democracy.

A bond of $5,000 was executed, pending a hearing upon a permanent order.

Miners Oppose Proposal Accepted By Operators

Union Leaders Declare That Interpretation of Owners Does Not Satisfy Their Opinion as to Harding Plan.

Washington, July 13.—The miners will not accept the president's proposal for settlement of the coal strike leaders forecast today, if the anthracite operators' statement of acceptance interprets the White House view.

According to union leaders the anthracite operators accept the proposals on a purely arbitration plan and the miners, it was declared, will not consent to it on that basis.

The leaders declared that arbitration as interpreted by the anthracite operators means taking up issues already settled by past agreements and which the anthracite miners have refused to arbitrate in conferences prior to government intervention.

The miners' spokesmen reiterated today that the men will continue to "stand pat" in insisting that they retain the check off, collective bargaining, union recognition and other "rights".

Further more, they again emphasized they will not accept reduction of wages under present conditions nor consent to district conferences.

The present's proposition, as the anthracite operators interpret it in their letter of acceptance is "blanket arbitration" and the workers by binding themselves to abide by terms of settlement under such a plan would risk losing every thing they now have, the miners' leaders said.

A full interpretation of the president's proposal will be asked by the miners, according to the leaders, which will include a specific request for definite information as to the scope of the powers of the commission suggested by the president.

HAS CLOSE CALL FROM JAIL TERM

Watertown, N. Y., July 13.—Eight children, ranging in age from 11 to 16 years were blown to pieces late yesterday by the explosion of a 75-millimeter shell on the back porch of a house in Dimmick Street, occupied by Edward G. Workman and William L. Salisbury.

The dead are: Morris Salisbury, 16; Frances Wiley, 13; Vivian Jones, 12; Olin Brown, 11; Amon Workman, 13; Edna Workman, 14; Sarah Barden, 14; Donald Horton, 12, of Pulaski, N. Y., who was visiting the Brown boy.

The shell, which was owned by Workman, was one which he had kept as a souvenir and was used on the rear porch to hold the door from closing. It was believed to be "dead".

The children were playing croquet in the back yard. The shell is believed to have either been set off by the hot sun or to have been struck by one of the victims with a croquet mallet. Shards within a radius of two blocks of the explosion were shattered.

The proceedings to keep the Auditor out of jail took place at Chillicothe, after Judge W. H. Middletown, of the Court of Appeals had been summoned from Waverly.

Judge Middletown met Hidy and Sanderson and Coke L. Doster, for Superintendent W. H. Vance, of Highland County, who was a "relator" in the proceedings.

Some nice questions of law are raised by the action of the Appeals Court, could keep the Auditor out of jail only by requiring him to furnish bond in the amount of the salary payment ordered by the lower court, that the case will be heard on its merits probably late this summer or fall.

RIOTS FOLLOW RAIL STRIKE IN TEXAS

Denison, Tex., July 13.—One railroad road foreman was shot through the arm and through the stomach and several strikebreakers were seriously injured in a riot here near the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad station. The rioting started early this morning when a mob of several hundred men attacked the strikebreakers when they arrived on the "Katy limited" from Dallas escorted by a number of railroad guards.

More than a hundred men were engaged in hand to hand combat at one time and bricks, stones, clubs and revolvers were used in the battle.

Many of the strikebreakers were placed in automobiles and taken toward Red river by members of the mob.

ORGANIZE K. K. K.

Chillicothe, O., July 13.—The Ku Klux Klan has organizers in this city at the present time, and indications are that a branch will be organized here within a few days. Already a large list of candidates has been secured and when the organization occurs it will probably be at some unoccupied spot near the city.

CONDEMN'S PRACTICE

Columbus, July 13.—City council here adopted a resolution condemning the importation of "undesirable and un-American persons to be used as strikebreakers" and objecting to the use of private detectives as shop guards by the various railroad companies in this city. The resolution was introduced by Councilman Webe chairman of the machinists union at local Pennsylvania shops.

We stand ready to cooperate wholeheartedly with any effort to bring about such an agreement.

The telegram is signed by B. M. Jewell, head of the railway employees department of the American Federation of Labor; John Scott, Secretary of the department; William H. Johnston, of the machinists; J. J. Hines of the sheet metal workers; J. W. Kline of the Blacksmiths; Charles P. Noonan, of the electrical workers; J. A. Franklin of the boilermakers and Martin F. Ryan of the Carmen.

PARTIALITY IS CHARGE MADE IN WIRE TO CHIEF

Shopcrafts Alleged Violation of Law Against the Carriers

HARDING INFORMED

Charge That Board Fixed Wage Scales Far Below Standard.

Chicago, July 13.—Grievance of the striking railway shopmen against the railroads and the United States Railroad Labor Board were laid before President Harding today in a telegram sent to the nation's chief executive by the executive council of the shopcrafts' unions.

Charges of partiality are clearly implied against the labor board and violations of law are specifically charged against the carriers. The willingness of the striking unions to bring about a just settlement is asserted.

Interruptions of commerce and of the mails, the telegram declares, will continue and decrease until an adjustment is reached. The telegram is the union's response to the proclamation issued by President Harding that the mails must not be interfered with.

The telegram charges that the railway labor board has fixed wage scales far beneath the standard of a living wage and contends that the employees are clearly within their rights in striking. It points out that federal Judge Page has held that decisions of the labor board on wages and rules are merely advisory.

The text of the telegram follows: "It appears from your proclamation of July 11 that incomplete information has been furnished you concerning the present dispute between the railroad operators and the employees.

"Ninety two railroads have violated the transportation act or decision of the railroad lab in 14 cases. These involve not only contracting out work and shops but also wage decisions, interpretations of rules and rights of employees to select their own representatives.

"When the Pennsylvania railroad refused to comply with the board's ruling, Federal Judge Page held that the board's decisions on wages and rules are only advisory. Railroads have refused ever since the passage of the transportation act to establish national boards of adjustment as described by the labor board as an essential part of the machinery to decide disputes between the carriers and employees." The railroads have made all negotiations merely formal thus throwing on the board and impossible burden of arbitration.

"The board has abolished overtime pay for Sundays and holidays, enjoyed for thirty years even on unorganized roads. The board has established a basic wage of $800 per year, although the department of labor statistics fixed a bare subsistence cost of living at over $1,400 and a minimum comfort budget at over $2,300. When the basic wage is unjust it follows that all wages framed up for skill and responsibility are likewise unjust.

"Organized employees support your declaration of May 23, 1921, that the lowest wage scale must be enough for comfort and insure that the struggle for existence shall not crowd out things truly worth living for and to provide education, recreation and saving. Employees have never violated any decisions of the board but railroads have violated the decisions and employees have refused to work under wages fixed by the labor board in violation of the provisions of the transportation act.

"The board has attempted to unload financial burdens of the railroad management upon employees through inadequate wages that will undermine the health and prosperity of the next generation. After exhausting all other methods the employees sought again to obtain a conference and agreement and only as a last resort did they strike.

"We respectfully insist that no interruption of commerce or interference with the mails is caused by direct or unlawful acts of organized employees. Such interruption and interference results inevitably from attempts of railroads to operate with insufficient, incompetent and unskilled workmen. Such interruption and interference will continue and increase until agreement is obtained upon just and reasonable wages between the representatives of the skilled employees and railroad executives who up to date have refused even to meet with the employees' representatives.

"We stand ready to cooperate wholeheartedly with any effort to bring about such an agreement.

The telegram is signed by B. M. Jewell, head of the railway employees department of the American Federation of Labor; John Scott, Secretary of the department; William H. Johnston, of the machinists; J. J. Hines of the sheet metal workers; J. W. Kline of the Blacksmiths; Charles P. Noonan, of the electrical workers; J. A. Franklin of the boilermakers and Martin F. HAS CLOSE CALL FROM JAIL TERM

Hillsboro, O., July 13.—County Auditor J. S. Kern's narrow escape from a term in the county jail is creating widespread interest, and the County Auditor escaped the jail sentence only after some hasty work in which Attorney Hidy and Sander son of Washington, C. H., and Coke L. Doster, of Greenfield, took an active part.

Auditor Kerns had been sentenced to the county jail for contempt of court, by Judge McBride, after Kerns had refused to pay certain salary to the County School Superintendent, as a result of a mix-up over the old and new school board's action, both boards claiming the right to the office, and Auditor Kerns not knowing to whom to pay the salary.

WOMEN OF OHIO WILL BE DECIDING FACTOR IN ELECTION

Cleveland, O., July 13.—Women of Ohio will be the deciding factor in the primary election August 8, Mrs. Stella M. Jacobi, state women manager of Senator Arthur H. Day's gubernatorial campaign said today.

Mrs. Jacobi, who has just completed a tour of the state, said that the first visit of the women to the primary polls will startle the "old line" politicians.

The women of the state are going out primary day. They are making a study of the candidates in order that they may vote intelligently.

MILITARY OCCUPATION OF RUHR NOW BEING URGED

Paris, July 13.—Military occupation of the Ruhr by France was urged today by the Echo De Paris, the official organ of the French military party.

The Echo De Paris, however, was an exception. Most of the newspapers adopted a moderate tone and recommended that France show a willingness to discuss the moratorium and other cures for Germany's financial ills.

The Petit Parisien suggested a deep study of the German financial indemnity problem to see if there is any way by which France could increase the delivery of German made goods.

SMITH DENIES HE PAID $15 A DAY TO WOMEN WORKERS

Answers Charge Made By Beetham On His Campaign

Columbus, July 13.—Secretary of State Smith, a Republican candidate for governor, has denied that he employed women workers at $15 a day further his campaign, as charged by Speaker Ruppert R. Beetham, Cadiz, also candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

"I am surprised that Mr. Beetham let his temper get the better of his judgement," said Secretary Smith, "my books are open to Mr. Beetham or anybody who wants to see them."

State Supreme Judge James G. Johnson, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, declared that "the reorganization bill (Dun emergency act) is a violent and revolutionary act passed in utter disregard of the American idea of orderly popular government. It erected a purely personal political machine with far reaching and dangerous powers, and, by the method of its passage, denied to the people the right to express their opinion upon it, in violation of a plain provision of the constitution."

QUARRELED SINCE WEDDING DAY

"My stomach and liver trouble made a regular grouch of me. I was sore at everyone, including my wife, and we quarreled every day since the wedding. She is a dear little girl and I know it was my fault. May's Wonderfu Remedy was recommended for my stomach trouble, and since taking it I have felt like a new man. My wife and I now get along beautifully." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sayre and Hemphill and druggists everywhere.

"The issue is presented now, since the Republican candidates are espousing its cause, with startling clearness, and the reorganization law and the method of its adoption will be the controlling factor in the state campaign."

At headquarters of Vic Donahay, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, declaration was made that Donahay stopped raids on state funds while state auditor, and that "calling on the courts to protect the treasury will be unnecessary with the old time watchdog at the head of the government in Ohio."

IS SERIOUSLY ILL

Mrs. J. V. Robinson, wife of the Rev. J. V. Robinson, former pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at New Jasper, and who is well known in this vicinity, is seriously ill at her home in Catawba, Ohio, Clark County, according to word received by friends.

Mrs. Robinson has not been well for some time, and it is feared will lapse into a state of coma, from which she may not recover.

BRAND BREAD LAW

What is more important than bread?

Senator Brand found bread selling over the State in most cases in twelve, thirteen and fourteen ounce loaves in place of the full sixteen ounces. He put a law through the Legislature forcing full-weight bread and the law is now in effect.

When the size of the loaves was reduced there was an advance in price and the people are now daily getting an average three ounces more bread without any extra cost.

(Signed) Mr. Brand also fought down the prices of hard surface roads.

may also be made in two colors, the skirt white, the blouse yellow, blue, jade, or rose. Of course not every figure can afford to be so sharply divided, but woman who wear such a model has the advantage of giving greater interest and variety to her wardrobe.

UNOFFICIAL TEST OF MILK SHOWS HIGH PER CENTAGE OF BACTERIA; THREE NEW CASES OF TYPHOID REPORTED

With three more cases of typhoid that tested the worst in Dayton, according to Dr. R. H. Grube, City Health Commissioner, Thursday, health officials and physicians were redoubling efforts to trace the epidemic to its source.

Interest in the investigation of the epidemic was turned toward the milk supply Wednesday evening when a report of a bacterial count made at the Dayton city bacteriological laboratories by Frank Chambliss, local chemist and bacteriologist, was submitted to a few physicians gathered in a Xenia doctor's office.

The test was made of four samples of milk taken from four different local dairies, and placed in an incubator at the Dayton laboratories. Chambliss told the doctors, Count, made Wednesday afternoon by Chambliss, Dr. W. G. Floyd, Dr. Piper and other Dayton health officials, showed that all samples tested a high number of bacteria per cubic centimeter, all being in excess of the limit set for health conditions, according to Chambliss.

Because of the number of bacteria found and the length of time and effort involved in any attempt to make a count of the typhoid bacteria present, no such count was made. While physicians pointed that much of this bacteria found is a natural result that cannot be eliminated, and admitted that the presence of the bacteria in great numbers did not indicate that the origin of the typhoid epidemic is in the milk, they agreed that the test showed that the milk is not confined within the sanitary standards set by health experts, and is considerably higher than the periodic milk tests in Dayton show.

Following the investigation made here by state officials in May, these in Xenia is on a par with the milk state officials recommended remedial measures.

Local dairymen Thursday said they did not believe the test was fair. They allege that they were not informed what milk was used for samples, when it was taken and where the samples were obtained, and they indicated the possibility of milk of one dairy being fresher than that of another dairy at the time it was obtained. Dairymen Thursday invited local physicians to conduct a bacterial count, and to get the milk for samples any time they cared to. According to Chambliss he took the samples from milk delivered by the different dairymen Monday morning, packed it in ice in buckets kept it at a temperature of 54 degrees, and delivered it to the incubator in Dayton within an hour after gathering the samples.

Following the announcement of the results of the tests made during the first three days of this week, physicians urged that periodical bacteria tests be made of all milk in the city. Such tests are made periodically in other cities. Dr. Grube, said Wednesday afternoon that he expected to make such a test as soon as he could get to it. The test made by Chambliss was on the latter's own authority and was without the knowledge of the health commissioner, who, it is understood was supplied with equipment for a bacteria count by the city two or three years ago.

Industrial plant officials said Thursday that orders of state department of health relative to water connections have been compiled with.

Following the investigation made here by state officials in May, these in Xenia is on a par with the milk state officials recommended remedial measures.

A Fine Idea This;

Summer
Decorating

This "Summer Decorating" idea while not entirely new is being accepted by many thoughtful and thrifty people who realize that their paperhanger can give them every attention right now—can render better service—even than he possibly could in the busy Fall season.

What about those two bedrooms of yours and that Living Room? They do need repapering—you've said so yourself. You could have them done now and not only avoid the busy Fall months, but have them done at a considerable saving—so why put it off as long as you have about decided to have them papered?

We will welcome a visit from you—will assist you in every possible way—will even arrange to do your work while you are away or vacationing.

UNOFFICIAL TEST OF MILK SHOWS HIGH PER CENTAGE OF BACTERIA; THREE NEW CASES OF TYPHOID REPORTED

With three more cases of typhoid that tested the worst in Dayton, according to the Dayton health bulletin issued last week.

Local dairymen Thursday said they did not believe the test was fair. They allege that they were not informed what milk was used for samples, when it was taken and where the samples were obtained, and they indicated the possibility of milk of one dairy being fresher than that of another dairy at the time it was obtained. Dairymen Thursday invited local physicians to conduct a bacteria count, and to get the milk for samples any time they cared to. According to Chambliss he took the samples from milk delivered by the different dairymen Monday morning, packed it in ice in buckets kept it at a temperature of 54 degrees, and delivered it to the incubator in Dayton within an hour after gathering the samples.

The test was made of four samples of milk taken from four different local dairies, and placed in an incubator at the Dayton laboratories. Chambliss told the doctors, Count, made Wednesday afternoon by Chambliss, Dr. W. G. Floyd, Dr. Piper and other Dayton health officials, showed that all samples tested a high number of bacteria per cubic centimeter, all being in excess of the limit set for health conditions, according to Chambliss.

Because of the number of bacteria found and the length of time and effort involved in any attempt to make a count of the typhoid bacteria present, no such count was made. While physicians pointed that much of this bacteria found is a natural result that cannot be eliminated, and admitted that the presence of the bacteria in great numbers did not indicate that the origin of the typhoid epidemic is in the milk, they agreed that the test showed that the milk is not confined within the sanitary standards set by health experts, and is considerably higher than the periodical milk tests in Dayton show.

The milk sample that tested the best in Xenia is on a par with the milk state officials recommended remedial.

ial connections to eliminate the possibility of water creeping into the city mains from creeks.

EIGHTY SHOOTERS TAKE PART IN MEET AT CLUB THURSDAY

Eighty clay-bird shooters took part in the third summer shoot of the Central Ohio Trapshooters League held at the gun club of the Xenia Country Club Thursday.

The shoot began at 8:30 o'clock with five traps in operation, so that the marksmen are able to shoot with little delay. Handsome trophies are offered by the League for the different events.

In addition to the eighty marksmen taking part in the events, there were 100 spectators present Thursday afternoon watching the shoot.

MAY ASK FEDERAL PROTECTION SOON

Columbus, July 13.—Federal protection may be asked to insure the peaceful operation of the Consolidated Coal and Coke Company's slack dump near New Straitsville, Perry county, if Gov. Davis takes no action toward the using of state troops, company officials intimated today.

Although a permanent injunction was issued in federal court here recently prohibiting interference by striking miners with the operations of the company, the necessary county or state protection needed to enforce it is lacking, according to Attorney Lowry S. Sater, Columbus, company counsel.

DAYTON RACES TO PLAY HERE SUNDAY

The management of the Bayliff Electric baseball team booked one of the fastest baseball aggregations out of the Gem City, in hooking up with the Dayton Racers, which team will meet the locals at the Washington St. yard Sunday afternoon.

The Racers have been exhibiting some of the best semi-pro baseball that has been on tap around Dayton this summer, and has held its own easily with Dayton teams. In a well-played game last Sunday the Racers lost to the Republicans 2 to 0, in what developed into a pitcher's battle.

Wickes, Racer's hurling ace, is said to be a stingy moundsman when it comes to passing out hits. This lad is reported to have everything on the ball but a chest protector, and he has been enjoying unusual success this season. Big Bill Koontz, the handsome spit-baller from Springfield, has again been engaged for hill duty by the electricians, it is announced. Franz, the star backstop who made a hit with the fans last Sunday, will be on the receiving end of Koontz' offerings, which requires no mean ability, with Koontz throwing them in circles.

One or two new faces will be seen in the lineup also, it is said. Fans are sitting tight with the Electrics this season because they are convinced the team is not afraid to lose a game now and then in its attempt to bring the best semi-pro outfits available to this city. Umpire Rachford will call the Sunday set-to at 2:30 o'clock. Incidentally Manager Roy Bayliff is again flinging the gauntlet at the feet of the Yellow Springs Athletics. Dead silence from the college town greeted the original challenge flung down to this fast-going club. The locals want to see the Athletics down here if they have to challenge the Yellow Springs crowd every week. So far nothing has been heard from Yellow Springs.

so Nervous Couldn't sleep Took Nerv-Worls.

Sometimes it is a very small thing that leads to very large ones in the life of a person. If some one had dropped in the circular about Nerv-Worls into the automobile of this man he would very likely still be suffering avishly from stomach and bowel trouble, if indeed he had lived so long with such an ailment. Here is the story just as Mr. T. C. Bradshaw, of Franktown, Mo., told it to me. His bowels and digestive organs were in bad shape and I got but little sleep and no rest and so was all wornout in the mornings. My appetite was bad and I bloated terribly with gas after every meal until I found a Nerv-Worls circular in my machine. I went to the drug store and got a bottle at once and before I had taken it half up
I was better—soon I was well and have had no return of the trouble." Many others have had the same experience after they had almost given up hope of ever finding any relief.

Take a bottle of Nerv-Worls and seal it at one dollar a bottle on a guarantee of money back if you do not get encouraging results from the first bottle. It is always on sale in this city at the Sayre & Hemphill drug store. It is especially fine for delicate women and sickly children. The taste is pleasant and the action while mild is usually effective.

DR. F. J. KYLE OF SPRINGFIELD, DIES AFTER ACCIDENT

Dr. F. J. Kyle, 58, well known veterinary surgeon of Springfield, a farmer Xenian, brother of T. Dales Kyle of this city, died Wednesday night at the Springfield City Hospital, from loss of blood following the loss of two fingers of his right hand and deep cuts in his right leg, below the knee, when horses hitched to a mowing machine, which he was operating on the farm of William Waddle, near Clifton, became frightened and ran away Wednesday afternoon, about three o'clock.

Dr. Kyle had gone to the farm on which John Shaw resides on the Jackson road, near Clifton, about noon to help with the mowing, and was alone in a field during a heavy storm about three o'clock. It is thought he dismounted from the mower to fix the cutter bars on the machine, or to escape the driving rain. While standing on front of the long cutter bars, the horses became frightened at the lightning and thunder and started off.

Mr. Shaw and others on the farm arrived at the scene of the accident about fifteen minutes later, when notified by persons passing along the road that there had been an accident at the mowing machine. The found Dr. Kyle standing near the machine trying to stop the flow of blood from his injured leg with his uninjured hand.

Dr. Kyle was taken to the Shaw farm house, and Jackson's ambulance of Springfield summoned. Two physicians, Dr. F. C. Adams of Yellow Springs, and Dr. J. H. Harris of Clifton, were called to dress

Mrs. Linton Tells How Helpful Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is at This Period

Denver, Colorado.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for seven years and I cannot tell you the good it has done me. It is good for young and old and I always keep a bottle of it in the house, for I am at that time of life when it calls for Lydia E. Pinkham's help. My husband saw your ad. in the papers and said 'You have taken everything you can think of, now I want E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound!' So I let him get it, and I soon felt better, and he told me 'I want you to take about six bottles.' So I did and I keep house and do all my own work and work out by the day and feel fine now. I tell every one about the Vegetable Compound, for so many of my friends thought I would not get well."—Mrs. R. J. LINTON, 1350 West 83d Avenue, Denver, Colorado.

After reading letters like the above, and we are constantly publishing them, why should any woman hesitate to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound if she is in need of help? It brings relief where other medicines fail.

PESKY BED BUGS

Bedbugs lay an average of seven eggs per day. Under favorable conditions they hatch in five days of which two-thirds are females. They mature to adult size and are capable of laying in four weeks. How many bedbugs would you have in a year if you left one female or egg unmolested for one year?

To rid the pesky bedbug, you readily see how necessary it is to use a preparation that will kill them in their living cases.

P. D. Q. has been demonstrated by the Leading Hospitals, Hotels and Railroad Companies that the safest and most economical way to stop further generations of bedbugs, roaches, fleas and ants is to use the new discovery Pesky Devil's Quietus "P. D. Q."

A .55c package of P. D. Q. makes a quart enough to kill a million bedbugs, roaches, fleas and ants and at the same time destroy their eggs.

Impossible for them to exist when P. D. Q. is properly used. Free a patent spout in every package to get the liquid out in the hard-to-get places.

P. D. Q. for family use .55c. Hospitals $2.50 and up to 100 gallons. P. D. Q. can also be purchased in sealed bottles, double strength, liquid form.

Genuine P. D. Q. is never powdered.

CONGRATULATIONS, MR. ROCKEFELLER.

Last Saturday, July 8th, was the 83d birthday anniversary of Mr. John Davidson Rockefeller, the richest man in the world.

It was an occasion of congratulations and well wishes from thousands of warm friends all over the country, but none will be more sincere than those of his friends and neighbors of the Halifax Country, Florida.

When with all the world open to him, Mr. Rockefeller selected Ormond, (five miles from Daytona), as his home for the winter part of the year it was a rare compliment to that community and a high tribute to the climate, beauty and attractions of the Halifax Country.

During the years he has lived among them Mr. Rockefeller has become appreciated as most unassuming and lovable gentleman. And sincerest wishes will go out to him that he may live and return there many more years to spend his winters.

To the average individual Mr. Rockefeller is looked upon merely as the world's richest man—as one who has by his acute business judgment built up the greatest private fortune accumulated by any individual in the history of the world. He is doubtless pictured as a cold, calculating and grasping individual by many who do not know him.

But to those who know him well the realization has come that he is far from that. Starting as a poor boy Mr. Rockefeller has built up a fortune that is the wonder of the age, but making money is not the one thing for which he should be noted. The giving of money where it will do good and benefit mankind is the happiest realization of his career.

Even as a boy, walking the streets of Cleveland seeking a job, Mr. Rockefeller displayed this generous characteristic, being ever thoughtful of the poor and the needy. In those days he kept a diary and inscribed on the pages of that little book is the true character of the man. He secured a job at small pay and among the entries in his diary are such items as "50 cents to a church," and "25 cents to a poor woman."

When in his poverty and struggle to obtain a start in life Mr. Rockefeller showed such charitable inclinations, it is no wonder that in his days of wealth he has become known as the world's greatest philanthropist, and through the giving of portions of his great wealth none can deny that seed has been sown that has made the world a happier and a better place in which to live.

THE ACTUAL RESULTS FROM PROHIBITION.

An investigator in Louisville, seeking testimony of an anti-prohibition business man, was sent to James L. Brown, real-estate broker, who said:

Property formerly occupied by saloons is now occupied by groceries, dry-goods stores, shoe-shops, etc. There is not a vacant corner in Louisville. We have soft-drink places which were formerly respectable saloons, that are bootlegging whisky at 50 cents to $1 a drink; they seem to have plenty of moonshine; but the men are afraid of that white looking whisky because it will make them either crazy or blind. . . . The working man, the mechanic, instead of spending money for whisky, is living as never before. His children have shoes, clothes, food. Before prohibition, charity organizations were taxed to their limit; clothing children as well as feeding them. The working man is saving his money; they tell me they do not want whisky back. Building and loan associations have all they can do to take care of the working man buying his own home. I have sold quite a number of homes to men who have saved from $800 to $1000 since prohibition. . . . These men tell me they are buying their homes with whisky money they have saved instead of throwing away. There are practically no empty houses; there is work for everybody. I used to spend half my time garnisheeing these men for rent. I have not garnisheed a man in fourteenth months.

Statistics from cities all over the country give about the same results, concerning arrests and crime, as those from Louisville. Arrests for drunkenness have fallen off from 50 to 90 per cent. For other offenses the reduction is just as general, but not in so great a proportion. Thus for Buffalo, St. Louis, Springfield, Mass., Fresno, Camden, Lowell, Peoria, Lexington, Ky., Baltimore, Galveston, Gary, and St. Paul a consolidated statement shows 30,061 arrests for drunkenness in the pre-prohibition year, and 11,232 in the first prohibition year.

MORE ABOUT PERMANENT WAVES

ING.

Last week in talking about permanent waving I finished describing the complicated process of winding the hair ready for the baking which does the trick and makes the hair stay in curl for approximately six months. The strands of hair are twisted about the metal curlers, cardboard spools are put over the borax saturated flannel, and electric spools over them. I said that by this time you had a violent headache. You've been sitting there a couple of hours and your scalp is pulled tight and weighted with all these appliances. Usually at this stage of the game they bring you a cup of hot tea which is most consoling.

The electricity begins to heat the borax which immediately begins to steam and bubble. Personally I had 36 curlers on my head all standing out at different angles, and when they began to boil and bubble I felt exactly like a tea kettle with three dozen spouts. The boiling and bubbling lasted about 10 minutes, during which period I was exceedingly nervous, though it wasn't painful nor even uncomfortable except for so much weight on my head. The attendant crippled a few of the tubes that had developed too much steam and they bubbled merrily away for some time. The cardboard spools, of course, were steam proof.

Presently the moisture dried up, and the baking went on for another five minutes. By this time the cardboard spools were hard and brown, quite "done" in fact. The electric spools were taken off and that strange octopus-like instrument pushed up again to the ceiling. Two attendants now became very busy cutting and cracking the spools which fell away easily in hard pieces.

Marie—Most women control this growth of superfluous hair by extracting all the coarse hairs as fast as they show and can be caught by the tweezers. The fine hair is kept bleached, if it disfigures, by using peroxide of hydrogen. If you use this method be sure that the tweezers have blunted ends as the sharp pointed one slip off the hair and act like a shave.

Lakemore—The mixture of sage tea and sulphur is never very satisfactory for coloring grey hair and very few people use it any more since the virtue of henna has been recognized. The tonic principles exist in each, but the henna is preferable as it tints the white hair to a deeper shade than sage and there is no unpleasant stickiness which is the chief objection to the old fashion mixture with the sulphur in it. This ingredient never dissolves and when used in quantity clings to the hair making it dry and harsh. When using henna merely to tint the white hair, it is made into a shampoo and left on the hair long enough to do this and not affect the natural shade of the hair.

Tomorrow—Looking Yourself over.

Rippling Rhymes

UNTIMELY TALK.

Sometimes, returning from the mart, my life is full of care, with problems grave that break my heart, and ache and fester there. For silence then my spirit pants; it is the balm that heals; and I'd be glad if all my aunts would cut out foolish spires. But they've a dozen tales to tell to make me stand aghast, of piffing mishaps that befall since I was with them last. They are the ghastly sweat of grief upon my pallid brow, but they won't make their stories brief, or any rest allow. The gossip of the neighborhood I hear in all details; how Mrs. Bunk and Mrs. Stood scraped with their fingernails; the Smiths were driven from their flat, my Aunt Jemima drools, because they kept an Airedale cat; which was against the rules; old Gaffer Twinkle beat his wife; with many lusty smacks, because she used his pocket knife to pry out rusty tacks. I'm wearied by the beastly grind, I'm jaded and distraught, and I have problems in my mind that call for sober thought. And all the females of my house, my aunts and nieces nine, are chirping round like startled grouse, and wrench this heart of mine. When man, who wins the daily bread, to his bleak dwelling goes, his aunts should merely soak his head, and let him have repose.

THE SPIRITUAL POWER OF PAIN IN THE SPIRITUAL WORLD.

I believe that pain is a great Teacher, as well as a great Reminder.

Also, it lights up a character and shows to the world the true measure of a man.

Some of the most wonderful characters I have ever known were those who had been bed-ridden for years, but whose souls shown from their faces as though daily bathed in the waters of heroism.

Pain brings us back to ourselves. It leads us into our Spiritual Parlor and there talks to us in the utmost freedom of frankness. Our selfishness is stripped and we get back to oneness in our feeling toward others.

With pain sitting in the Throne Room of our body, we bow in our helplessness and see futility in a new light.

And yet at such a time, the great God in us gives us quiet and tells us about some of the wonderful truths

As certain as a lighted candle will burn up its wax—

EVERY informed man and woman knows that the most important of all rules of health is moderation.

The man or woman who overeats is sowing the seeds of ill-health. Just as certain to shorten life as a lighted candle is sure to burn up its wax.

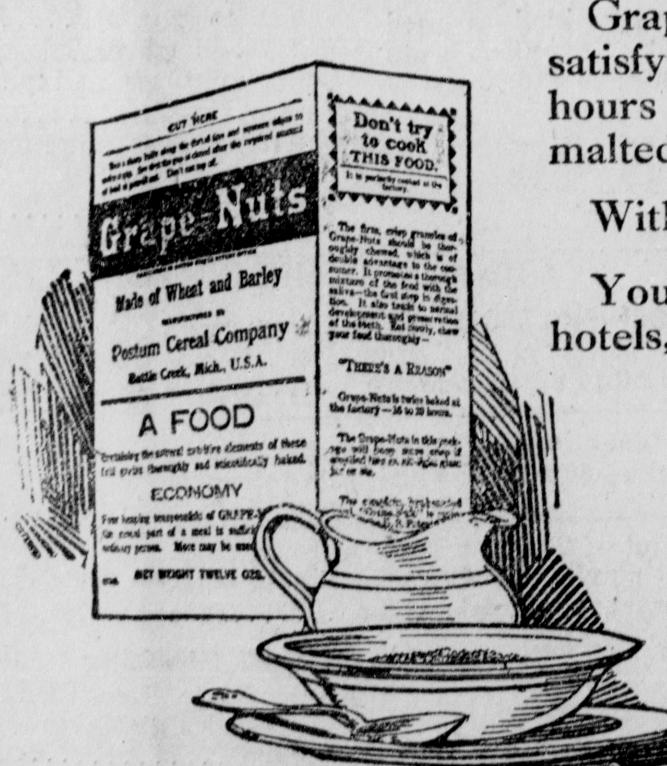

To feel your best, to do your best work, to keep healthy for many long, happy years, you cannot afford to eat heavy, indigestible food.

That's why men and women of energy and activity everywhere make Grape-Nuts a regular part of their diet.

QUALIFYING PLAY IN GOLF TOURNEY GETS UNDER WAY

president of the U. S. Golf association has arrived and is now directing the tournament.

Postmortem discussion of previous play developed that one of the best players, Clarence D. Thom, of Shinnecock Hills, N. Y., had taken 153 strokes in making the 36 holes and not 152 as recorded on the official program.

Smokie Country Club, Glencoe, Ills., July 13.—The last 108 starters in the third qualifying round of the national open golf championship got underway this morning. The round, originally billed for yesterday had to be postponed because of heavy rains.

The curtain cannot now fall on the great golf event before Saturday, when fully 10,000 persons are expected to make up the gallery.

Consensus among observers still is that the title will land somewhere among Jim Barnes, the present holder, Walter Hagen, Jock Hutchison, Abe Mitchell, Chick Evans, Bobby Jones, Leo Diegel, Mike Brad, Eddy Held and Joe Kirkwood.

Hutchison's remarkable 135 for 36 holes negotiated Monday and Hagan's 141 Tuesday, the two best scores so far registered—indicated that both of these stars are in top form and like the course.

Among the stars who will play today are: Willie Hunter, former British open champion and P. O. Hart of Marietta, O., Freddie McLeod, of Washington, D. C., and Laurie Aytion, of Evanston, Emmett French, of Youngstown and Tom Boyd of Fox Hills, Dave Robertson of Detroit and George Keffrigan of White Beeches, N. Y., Paddy Doyle, of St. Louis, and Billy Mihlhorn of Shreveport, Harry Hampton of Detroit, and Walter Loeffler, of Pittsburgh, Pat O'Hara, of Richmond county, N. Y. and Bob McDonald of Bob-o'-Links, A. A. Armour, Scottish amateur champion and Eddie Loos, of Lake Shore, Harry R. Johnston, of St. Paul and David Black, Lake Geneva and Fred Bell, of Denver and Burdette Ford of Midlothian, the latter western intercollegiate amateur champion.

DAVIS DEFENDS THE GOVERNMENT'S STAND

Washington, July 13.—Secretary of Labor Davis today took issue with those who have criticised the administration for not stepping into the breach between the coal operators and miners at the beginning of the mine strike.

Davis said a mitigating factor in the present situation was the accumulation of surplus stocks of coal when the strike started.

"There is no actual famine," he declared in a letter to Thomas D. Mullins, of Pittsburgh. "No condition of cold weather confronts us, and the strike has been in progress only 15 weeks."

SLOWING DOWN OF TRAFFIC NOTICED

Columbus, July 13.—First notice of the slowing down of local railroad movements, brought about by the strike of railroad shop craftsmen, is the announcement made here today by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad of the cancellation of two passengers trains, numbers 61 and 62, operating between here and Wheeling, W. Va.

Company officials stated that the engines formerly used on the cancelled runs will be used to keep other trains running on schedule.

REDISCOUNT RATES OF BANKS LOWERED

Washington, July 13.—The rediscount rate of the federal reserve banks of the country will be cut in the very near future, it was learned officially at the treasury department today. The present rate is four per cent. It is unlikely, it was said, that the reduction will go below 3 1/2 per cent as compared with Great Britain's reduction today to 3 per cent.

Treasury officials said to bring the discount rate below 3 1/2 per cent would have a bad effect on the liberty bond market.

DISCUSS MEANS TO AVOID TAR COATING

Columbus, July 13.—A meeting is scheduled to take place here today between state highway Director Herrick and officials of the Ohio State Automobile Association and the Ohio Good Roads Federation to discuss plans for avoiding the bespattering with tar of all machines traveling over freshly coated macadam roads.

Director Herrick has suggested that half the width of a road be coated at a time, leaving the other half open for traffic. He explained however that this would increase the cost of repairs and improvements to a point which at this time would be prohibitive.

THOUSANDS OF HONEYBEES KILLED BY WIND

Dayton, July 13.—Thousands of honeybees swept by a strong wind late yesterday afternoon, were killed when they struck a stone wall, surrounding the pasture in which they were feeding.

RUSSIAN VILLAGE ENTIRELY DESTROYED

Warsaw, July 13.—An entire village in Galicia was destroyed by the explosion of a powder factory, according to information received here today. The casualties are not known but it is feared they were heavy. The location of the village was not specified.

ASKED TO PLAY DOUBLES

New York, July 13.—According to present plans William T. Tilden, second, the national singles champion and Vincent Richards, will be requested to play doubles together in the metropolitan championship during the week of July 24, in order to determine their desirability as a team to represent the United States in the Davis cup challenge rounds. Watson Washburn and R. Norris Williams, who were the Davis cup doubles team last year, also will be asked to play in this tournament, it was announced.

DISCONTINUE PRACTICE

Washington, July 13.—The Federal Trade Commission today ordered a number of companies engaged in manufacturing road repairing machinery to discontinue the practice of offering to give to officers or employees of any political subdivision of a state or municipality money or other gratuities for the purpose of inducing them to purchase products of the companies.

BABY NEAR DEATH

Columbus, July 13.—Little hope was held out today for the recovery of Tolby Large, Jr., 8 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Tolby Large, 18 North Central Avenue, of this city. Left alone, the baby clambered from his bed and toppled out of a second story window, head first, upon the brick sidewalk below, suffering concussion of the brain.

Efficient Housekeeping

BY Laura A. Kirkman

MAKING YOUR OWN RAG RUGS

This is the day of the rag rug. They are tastefully used in bedroom, bathroom, sleeping porch, sun parlor, nursery, kitchen and summer home. They are washable and therefore sanitary; they can be made to fit in with the color scheme of any room; and—best of all—the cost practically nothing if the home woman uses her old scraps of material to make them.

To produce the most satisfactory results, however, the housekeeper should use rags of discarded garments, which have held their color through many washings. Old bed linen may be dyed the same color as an old through several laundries before being cut into strips. Plain-jetted rags make very soft and pretty rugs. But wool rags should be used with the understanding that the finished rug will have to be dry-cleaned rather than "tubbed," to prevent drawing out of shape.

Use a large croche hook of either wood, celluloid or steel for crocheted rugs (these hooks are about 12 inches long). For most crocheted rugs the rag strips should be one-half inch wide. If wider, they do not crochet as closely. If they are cut twice as wide and then folded under the corners, this completes the rug.

Molly Pitcher Round Crocheted Rug: Cut rag strips one-half inch wide. Ch 5, join work around and around, widening sufficiently to avoid curling by putting two Sc in one Sc until you have 15 rounds of solid color. Then make 10 Sc of white, 10 of color for 7 rounds, 6 more rows of solid color, then border with 10 white Sc and 10 colored Sc for one round, then solid color of one or two rounds for border.

This completes the rug.

Oval Priscilla Rug with Crochet Edge:

To crochet the rug, cut the rags one-half inch wide, 20 Ch, 20 Sc, 20 Sc up other side of Ch, continue around, widening by putting 2 Sc in 1 Sc at ends of rug to keep from curving. Make desired size. For crochet design on edge: (Use a 5th thread of any color.) Edge first row: 12 Ch, 1 Sc in 4th Sc. Second Row: 2 Ch, 6 Sc under each 4th Sc, making 2 Ch between each 4th Sc twice.

Ch 1 Sc in 2 Sc, 2 Ch, 6 Sc under next L, continue around. Third row: 2 Sc in 1st hole, 1 Sc in next 2 Ch, 2 Sc in same, 1 Sc in next hole, 2 Ch, 2 Ch, 2 Sc in same, continue around. This finishes the edging.

Oblong Knitted Rag Rug: Cut rag strips one-half inch wide. Use large strips knitting needles. Cast on 45 stitches and knit back and forth until centre of the rug is 15 by 38 inches, using white and light colored yarn alternately. Fr. knitted border Cast 10 stitches and knit a long strip for one side. Finish off, and cast on ten more stitches, to make another long strip for the other side. Make two strips for the ends of the rug (also ten stitches wide). Sew these four strips on the rug. Then cast on ten stitches again and knit a perfect square; this square is for one of the corners. Make three other squares in this way to sew into the other corners, and the rug is done.

DR. F. J. KYLE OF SPRINGFIELD, DIES AFTER ACCIDENT

Dr. F. J. Kyle, 58, well known veterinary surgeon of Springfield, a farmer Xenian, brother of T. Dales Kyle of this city, died Wednesday night at the Springfield City Hospital, from loss of blood following the loss of two fingers of his right hand and deep cuts in his right leg, below the knee, when horses hitched to a mowing machine, which he was operating on the farm of William Waddie, near Clifton, became frightened and ran away Wednesday afternoon, about three o'clock.

Dr. Kyle had gone to the farm on which John Shaw resides, on the Jackson road, near Clifton, about noon to help with the mowing, and was alone in a field during a heavy storm about three o'clock. It is thought he dismounted from the mower to fix the cutter bars on the machine, or to escape the driving rain. While standing on front of the long cutter bars, the horses became frightened at the lightning and thunder and started off.

Mr. Shaw and others on the farm arrived at the scene of the accident about fifteen minutes later, when notified by persons passing along the road that there had been an accident at the mowing machine. The round Dr. Kyle standing near the machine trying to stop the flow of blood from his injured leg with his uninjured hand.

Dr. Kyle was taken to the Shaw farm house, and Jackson's ambulance of Springfield summoned. Two physicians, Dr. F. C. Adams of Yellow Springs, and Dr. J. H. Harris of Clifton, were called to dress

AILING WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Mrs. Linton Tells How Helpful Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is at This Period

Denver, Colorado.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for seven years and I cannot tell you the good it has done me. It is good for young and old and I always keep a bottle of it in the house, for I am at that time of life when it calls for Lydia E. Pinkham's help. My husband saw your ad. in the papers and said 'You have taken everything you can think of, now I want you to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound!' So I let him get it, and I soon felt better, and he told me 'I want you to take about six bottles.' So I did and I keep house and do all my own work and work out by the day and feel fine now. I tell every one about the Vegetable Compound, for so many of my friends thought I would not get well."—Mrs. R. J. LINTON, 1850 West 83d Avenue, Denver, Colorado.

After reading letters like the above, and we are constantly publishing them, why should any woman hesitate to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound if she is in need of help? It brings relief where other medicines fail.

QUALIFYING PLAY IN GOLF TOURNEY GETS UNDER WAY

Smokie Country Club, Glencoe, Ills., July 13.—The last 108 starters in the third qualifying round of the national open golf championship got under way this morning. The round, originally billed for yesterday had to be postponed because of heavy rains.

The curtain cannot now fall on the great golf event before Saturday, when fully 10,000 persons are expected to make up the game.

Consensus among observers still is that the title will land somewhere among Jim Barnes, the present holder, Walter Hagen, Jock Hutchison, Abe Mitchell, Chick Evans, Bobby Jones, Leo Diegel, Mike Brady, Eddy Held and Joe Kirkwood.

Hutchison's remarkable 135 for 36 holes negotiated Monday and Hagan's 141 Tuesday, the two best scores so far registered—indicated that both of these stars are in top form and like the course.

Among the stars who will play today are: Willie Hunter, former British open champion and P. O. Hart of Marietta, O., Freddie McLeod, of Washington, D. C., and Laurie Ayton, of Evanston, Emmett French, of Youngstown and Tom Boyd of Fox Hills, Dave Robertson of Detroit and George Kerrigan of White Beeches, N. Y. Paddy Doyle, of St. Louis, and Billy Mehlhorn of Shreveport, Harry Hampton of Detroit, and Walter Loeffler, of Pittsburgh, Pat O'Hara, of Richmond county, N. Y. and Bob McDonald of Bob-o'-Links, A. A. Armour, Scottish amateur champion and Eddie Loos, of Lake Shore, Harry R. Johnston, of St. Paul and David Black, Lake Geneva and Fred Bell, of Denver and Burdette Ford of Midlothian, the latter western intercollegiate amateur champion.

J. Frederick Byers, of Pittsburgh,

president of the U. S. Golf association has arrived and is now directing the tournament.

Postmortem discussion of previous play developed that one of the best players, Clarence D. Thom, of Shinnecock Hills, N. Y., had taken 158 strokes in making the 36 holes and not 152 as recorded on the official program.

DAVIS DEFENDS THE GOVERNMENT'S STAND

Washington, July 13.—Secretary of Labor Davis today took issue with those who have criticised the administration for not stepping into the breach between the coal operators and miners at the beginning of the mine strike.

Davis said a mitigating factor in the present situation was the accumulation of surplus stocks of coal when the strike started.

"There is no actual famine," he declared in a letter to Thomas D. Mullins, of Pittsburgh. "No condition of cold weather confronts us, and the strike has been in progress only 15 weeks."

SLOWING DOWN OF TRAFFIC NOTICED

Columbus, July 13.—First notice of the slowing down of local railroad movements, brought about by the strike of railroad shop craftsmen, is the announcement made here today by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad of the cancellation of two passenger trains, numbers 61 and 62, operating between here and Wheeling, W. Va.

Company officials stated that the engines formerly used on the cancelled runs will be used to keep other trains running on schedule.

REDISCOUNT RATES OF BANKS LOWERED

Washington, July 13.—The rediscount rate of the federal reserve banks of the country will be cut in the very near future, it was learned officially at the treasury department today. The present rate is four per cent. It is unlikely, it was said, that the reduction will go below 3 1/2 per cent as compared with Great Britain's reduction today to 3 per cent.

Treasury officials said to bring the discount rate below 3 1/2 per cent would have a bad effect on the liberty bond market.

DISCUSS MEANS TO AVOID TAR COATING

Columbus, July 13.—A meeting is scheduled to take place here today between state highway Director Herrick and officials of the Ohio State Automobile Association and the Ohio Good Roads Federation to discuss plans for avoiding the besetting with tar of all machines traveling over freshly coated macadam roads.

Director Herrick has suggested that half the width of a road be coated at a time, leaving the other half open for traffic. He explained however that this would increase the cost of repairs and improvements to a point which, at this time would be prohibitive.

THOUSANDS OF HONEYBEES KILLED BY WIND

Dayton, July 13.—Thousands of honeybees swept by a strong wind late yesterday afternoon, were killed when they struck a stone wall, surrounding the pasture in which they were feeding.

RUSSIAN VILLAGE ENTIRELY DESTROYED

Warsaw, July 13.—An entire village in Galicia was destroyed by the explosion of powder factor, according to information received here today. The casualties are not known but it is feared they were heavy. The location of the village was not specified.

ASKED TO PLAY DOUBLES

New York, July 13.—According to present plans William T. Tilden, second, the national singles champion and Vincent Richards, will be requested to play doubles together in the metropolitan championship during the week of July 24, in order to determine their desirability as a team to represent the United States in the Davis cup challenge rounds. Watson Washburn and R. Norris Williams, who were the Davis cup doubles team last year, also will be asked to play in this tournament, it was announced.

DISCONTINUE PRACTICE

Washington, July 13.—The Federal Trade Commission today ordered a number of companies engaged in manufacturing road repairing machinery to discontinue the practice of offering to give to officers or employees of any political subdivision of a state or municipality money or other gratuities for the purpose of inducing them to purchase products of the companies.

BABY NEAR DEATH

Columbus, July 13.—Little hope was held out today for the recovery of Tolby Large, Jr., 8 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Tolby Large, 18 North Central Avenue, of this city. Left alone, the baby clambered from his bed and toppled out of a second story window, head first, upon the brick sidewalk below, suffering concussion of the brain.

Efficient Housekeeping

BY Laura A. Kirkman

MAKING YOUR OWN RAG RUGS

This is the day of the rag rug. They are tastefully used in bedroom, bathroom, sleeping porch, sun parlor, nursery, kitchen and summer home. They are washable and therefore sanitary; they can be made to fit in with the color scheme of any room; and—best of all—the cost practically nothing if the home woman uses her old scraps of material to make them.

To produce the most satisfactory results, however, the housekeeper should use rags of discarded garments, which have held their color through many washings. Old bed linens may be dyed the same color and put through several launderings before being cut into strips. Flannel rags make very soft and pretty rugs. But wool rags should be used with the understanding that the finished rug will have to be dry-cleaned rather than "tubbed," to prevent drawing out of shape.

Use a large crocheted hook of either wood, celluloid or steel for crocheted rugs (these hooks are about 12 inches long.) For most crocheted rugs the rag strips should be one-half inch wide. If wider, they do not crochet as closely. If they are cut twice as wide and then folded under on both edges, the finished mat will be much thicker and no raw edges will show on the right side.

In the three pattern directions given below, the following abbreviations are used: Ch for "Chain"; Sc for "Single crochet"; Dc for "Double Crochet"; and L for "Loop."

Molly Pitcher Round Crocheted Rug: Cut rag strips one-half inch wide. Use large wood knitting needles. Cast on 45 stitches and knit back and forth until centre of the rug is 15 by 38 inches, using white and light colored rags alternately. Fr. knitted border. Cast 10 stitches and knit a long strip for one side. Finish off, and cast on ten more stitches, to make another long strip for the other side. Make two strips for the ends of the rug (about ten stitches wide.) Sew these four strips on the rug. Then cast on ten stitches again and knit a perfect square; this square is for one of the corners. Make three other squares in this way to sew into the other corners, and the rug is done.

TWO ARE INJURED

Cincinnati, July 13.—Ethel Greer, 22, and Earl Portner, 20, were taken to the city hospital in a critical condition today as the result of an auto accident in Eden Park. Both received possible skull fractures and internal injuries when a car in which they were riding with two other couples crashed into a stone abutment. The two were riding with two other couples.

MORE ATTENTION SHOULD BE GIVEN TO CHILD LIFE

"While every effort is being promoted to produce the finest breed of live stock, and the greatest of care is taken of the stock, the least interest or effort upon the minds of the people of the country is directed to the conservation of child life, or what the child should eat, do, or think to become a better citizen," was the statement of Mrs. Lillian Burt, of the Ohio State Department of Health, before over two hundred members of the Greene County W. C. T. U. in session at the annual institute, held Wednesday morning and afternoon, at the Second United Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Burt's talk a feature of the afternoon program dealt with "Conservation of Child Life"; the state official giving many startling statements concerning the work and the existing conditions in the state.

The other principal speaker of the afternoon session, was C. W. Maxwell, of Zanesville, prosecuting attorney of Muskingum County. Attorney Maxwell has gained wide spread attention with his enforcement of prohibition in the county of which he is an official. According to his statements made at the meeting Wednesday, one hundred and thirty stills and twelve automobiles have been confiscated in Muskingum Co., since his election to office, which were used in the manufacture and transportation of liquor.

Maxwell, a Democrat elected, according to his statements, Wednesday, by the women of the county in a district containing 6000 Republican.

Maxwell since holding office has gotten rid of all slot machines in the County, by arresting the promoters of the business, instead of the owners.

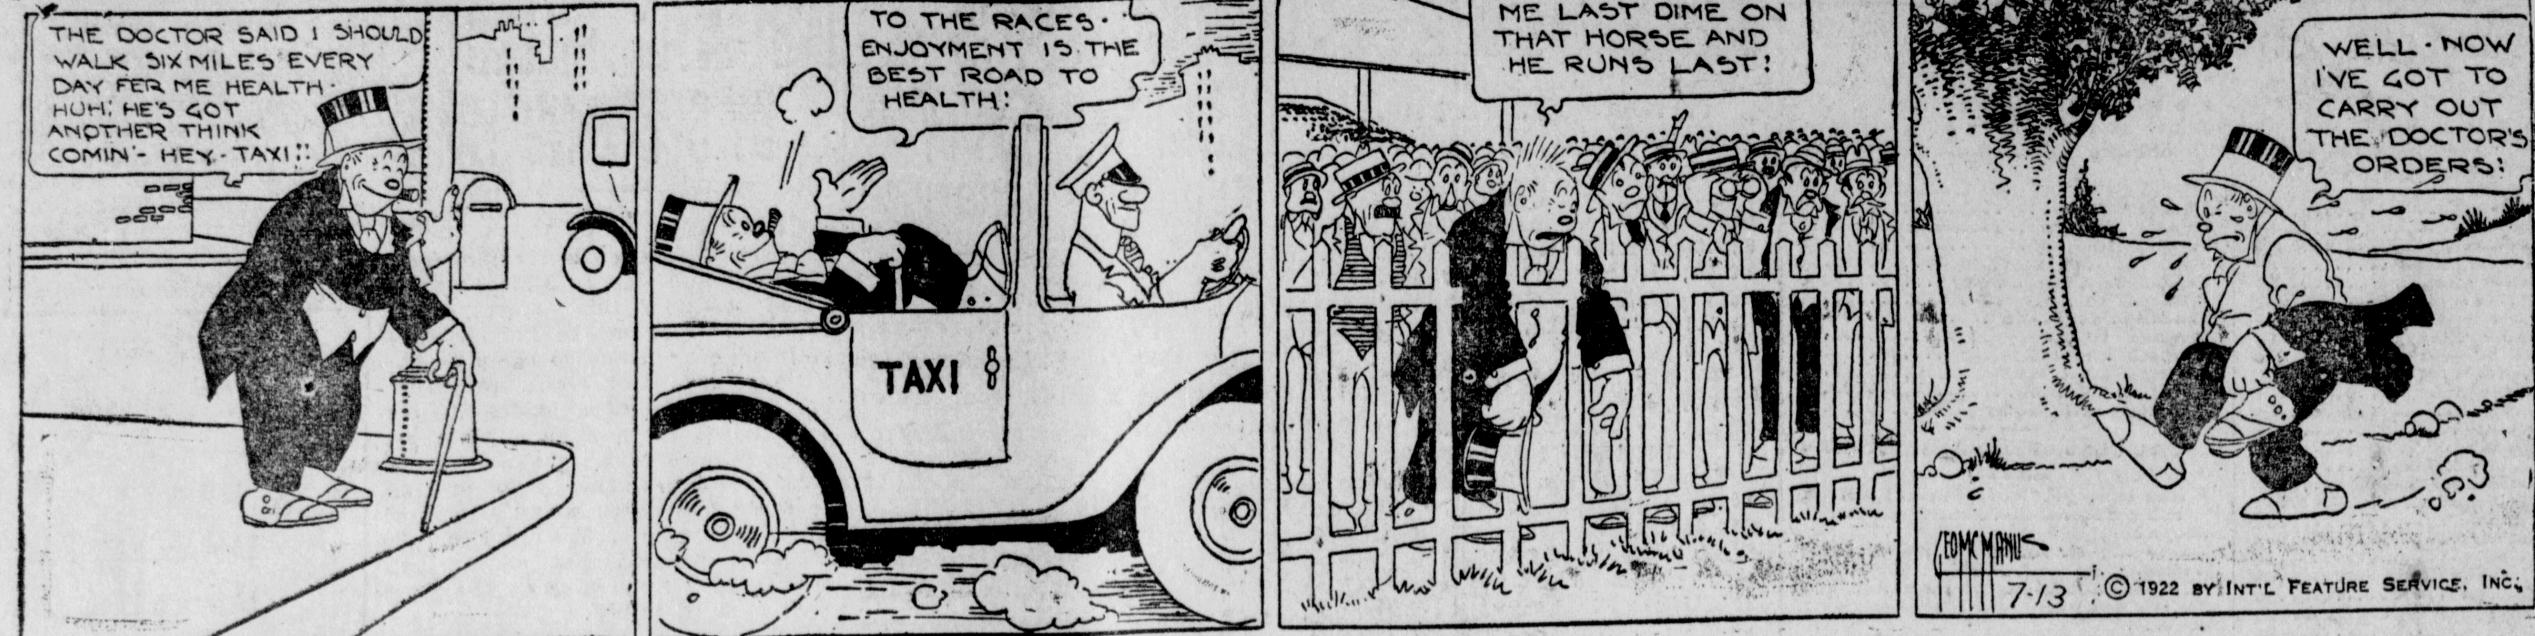

One of Maxwell's outstanding codes in his legal platform is the existence of a single standard of morals for men and women.

The Institute Wednesday, opened with a business session in the morning, a round table discussion being held, a splendid program for the coming year being outlined and recommended by the members. The meeting was in the nature of a conference to discuss different branches of the work outlined.

The following resolutions, sponsored by the League of Women Voters of Ohio, was read by Mrs. Burt, at the Institute.

"The Women of Ohio will work for a legislation that will give better protection to the delinquent and defective women of the State. They want provisions made for the care of the delinquent women, over 18 years of age, in correction and not in penal institution. They also ask better facilities at Marysville, for classification of its inmates. They ask for proper facilities to be provided for the segregation of this class of women in all existing institutions, and that the scope of these institutions may be enlarged for adequate detention of women who are a menace to society to care for their diseased condition, and their potential motherhood.

The agitation is being furthered because of the lack of facilities on the part of the state for maintaining any other institutions of this sort, with the exception of the state penitentiary, it is pointed out. The members of the Women Voters' League of Ohio, are interviewing and urging every candidate for public office to pledge their assistance to the passage of the law, recommended in the resolution.

NELLIE MEETS NEW ACQUAINTANCE CHAPTER 16

Enthusiastically Nellie thanked Mr. Robinson for the pleasure he had given them, and made him laugh heartily at some of her comments. As she turned to her desk she caught the bookkeeper's eyes fixed upon her face, a strange warning sort of a look in their depths. But with a shrug she started to work.

"The poor nut," she said to herself. "He never says anyone to smile or talk. He should be in an undertaker's place, or the morgue. His sour face makes me shiver." But soon she had forgotten the thin, serious-faced man. Her work was going well. She was happy.

"About this time Cora, who had not been very well, lost her position. Not because she not competent, but the firm's business had fallen off to an appreciable extent. Cora, being the last stenographer hired, was the first to be let go. They gave her a good reference and dismissed her with words of regret. It was a blow, a hard one. She had spent quite a bit on Nellie, more than she could afford, had she known she would be even a short time out of work. Her mother needed what she sent her, needed it to live at the corners—her invalidism required food and medicine, dainty food that would keep up her strength.

"You must take a week and rest," Mrs. Thompson said kindly. The girls too urged her to remain quietly at home a few days before she tried for another position.

"Nellie and I can pay the expenses for a week, I guess," Gladys said and Nellie, her arms around Cora, begged her to stay in bed and let them wait upon her. But Cora was obdurate. She went at once to Miss McBride's agency, and with only one day lost found a position with a good firm, and two dollars a week advance. But the work was much harder if this she, however said nothing. She must work. What was the use of grumbling?

"They aren't particularly kind. We are just machines, like our typewriters. But they are fair to those who do good work. They wouldn't keep me or any other girl a minute who didn't. There's no sentiment. They want what they pay for—and more."

"But thing of getting $15 a week!" Nellie said. "I wonder if I will ever be worth $15 of anybody's money?" "Of course you will, if you keep on trying to improve." Cora encouraged.

"You type as well as I do, and if you work at your shorthand, look out for your spelling, you will soon get a raise."

"I think it would help, Nellie, if you talk in a more ladylike way," Gladys broke in. "In some offices your kidding would loose you your job. Save it for us, and that boy who walked home with you the other night. Who was he anyway?"

"Just an office boy in the building. He lives near here. You weren't thinking that kid was a beau, were you?"

"He's as old as you are, isn't he?"

"Maybe—I guess so! But boys like him don't know nothing. They're just silly kids. He said a funny thing, though," she frowned.

"What?" The girls weren't really very curious about each other affairs. They were, however, intensely interested.

"Why, he asked me where I worked, and when I told him he whistled, then said:

"That old guy keeps changing doesn't he? He has a new girl often than anybody in the building. Must be hard to work for."

"I told him he wasn't! Not a bit. That he was as kind as could be. Then he whistled again, and said:

"Look out for him! Them old fellows ain't being so awful kind to their stenogs for nothing—and what does his girl leave him for if he's so kind?"

"I told him they wasn't good stenogs most likely, but he didn't say nothing to that, just whistled again and then we were here. I wonder what he meant by them whistles? I'm going to ask him if I see him again."

Cora looked troubled. She had begun to feel a little uneasy about Nellie. Often she brought home flowers Mr. Robinson had given her, lovely blooms from the florists. Then too he had once more given her theater tickets, and once he had taken her to lunch. It was all innocent enough—but Nellie was so pretty, so bright and winning in spite of her impudence.

"I won't say anything—yet," Cora said to herself. "I won't put ideas into her head. She needs the money dreadfully and if she leaves he might not give her a reference."

Tomorrow—Cora Visits Mr. Robin- son's Office.

THE reason so many critical music lovers prefer The Brunswick is not hard to find. It is all due to the Brunswick Method of Reproduction.

Tone is the chief reason for so many friends for The Brunswick. And tone depends largely upon the reproducer and the tone amplifier.

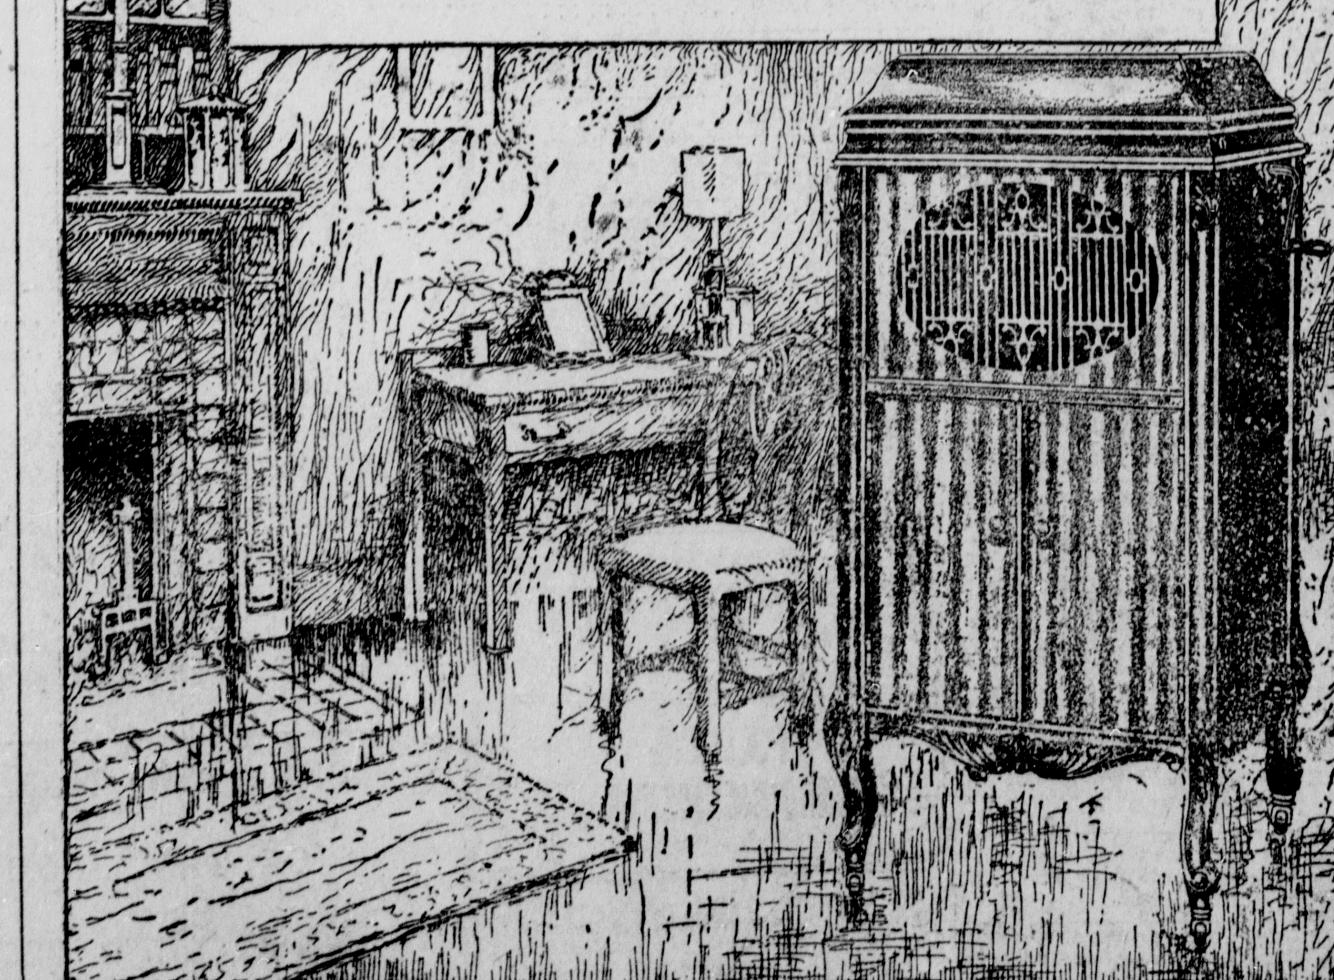

In both of these features Brunswick has gone far in advance. The Ultona plays all records, not confining you to one make. And it plays each exactly as intended, with the proper diaphragm, the proper needle. Best of all, it is not a hastily contrived makeshift, but a basic invention.

The Brunswick Tone Amplifier is built entirely of wood. It is oval shaped and moulded of rare hollywood—like the sounding board of a fine piano. The usual way is to make this throat of cast metal, a faulty way that brings metallic sounds.

You'll appreciate how far in advance The Brunswick is; you'll admire its superior tone. The proof of the pudding is—Hearing. All we ask you to do is to investigate The Brunswick with your own ears.

MORE ATTENTION SHOULD BE GIVEN TO CHILD LIFE

"While every effort is being promoted to produce the finest breed of live stock, and the greatest of care is taken of the stock, the least interest or effort upon the minds of the people of the country is directed to the conservation of child life, or what the child should eat, do, or think to become a better citizen," was the statement of Mrs. Lillian Burt, of the Ohio State Department of Health, before over two hundred members of the Greene County W. C. T. U. in session at the annual institute, held Wednesday morning and afternoon, at the Second United Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Burt's talk a feature of the afternoon program dealt with "Conservation of Child Life" the state official giving many startling statements concerning the work and the existing conditions in the state.

The other principal speaker of the afternoon session, was C. W. Maxwell, of Zanesville, prosecuting attorney of Muskingum County. Attorney Maxwell has gained wide spread attention with his enforcement of prohibition in the county of which he is an official. According to his statements made at the meeting Wednesday, one hundred and thirty stills and twelve automobiles have been confiscated in Muskingum Co., since his election to office, which were used in the manufacture and transportation of liquor.

Maxwell, a Democrat elected, according to his statements, wednesday, by the women of the county in a district containing 6000 Republican.

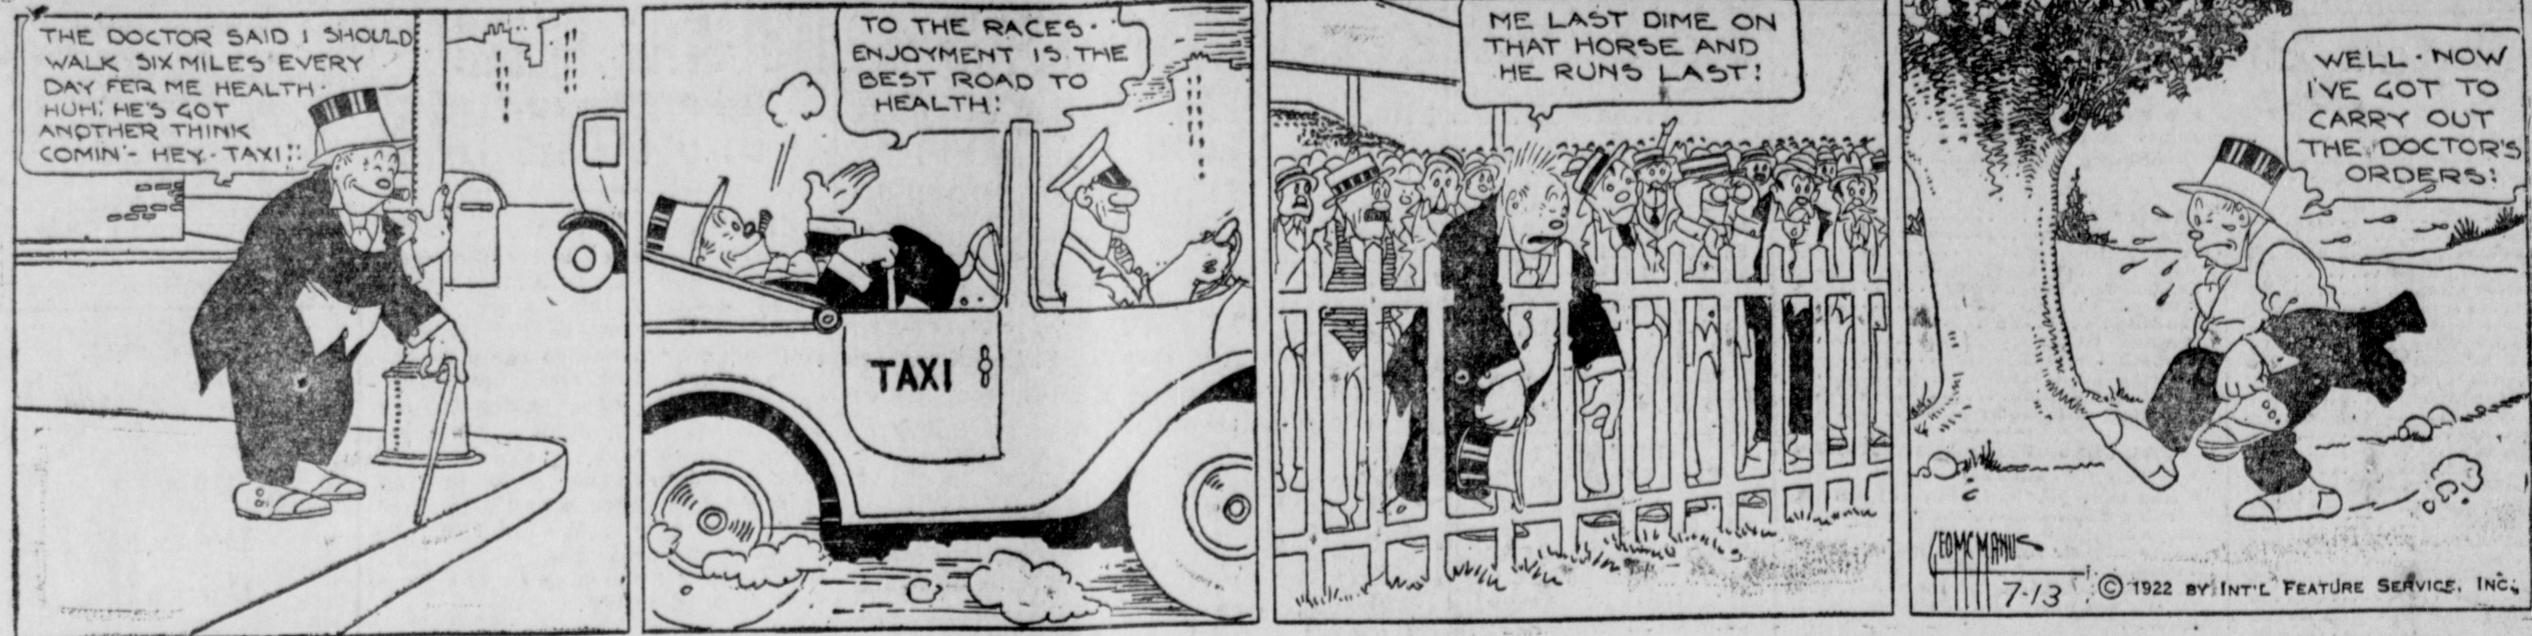

Maxwell since holding office has gotten rid of all slot machines in the County, by arresting the promoters of the business, instead of the owners One of Maxwell's outstanding codes in his legal platform is the existence of a single standard of morals for men and women.

The Institute Wednesday, opened with a business session in the morning, a round table discussion being held, a splendid program for the coming year being outlined and recommended by the members. The meeting was in the nature of a conference to discuss different branches of the work outlined.

The following resolutions, sponsored by the League of Women Voters of Ohio, was read by Mrs. Burt, at the Institute.

"The Women of Ohio will work for a legislation that will give better protection to the delinquent and defective women of the State. They want provisions made for the care of the delinquent women, over 18 years of age, in correction and not in penal institution. They also ask better facilities at Marysville, for classification of its inmates. They ask for proper facilities to be provided for the segregation of this class of women in all existing institutions, and that the scope of these institutions may be enlarged for adequate detention of women who are a menace to society to care for their diseased condition and their potential motherhood.

The agitation is being furthered because of the lack of facilities on the part of the state for maintaining any other institutions of this sort, with the exception of the state penitentiary, it is pointed out. The members of the Women Voters' League of Ohio, are interviewing and urging every candidate for public office to pledge their assistance to the passage of the law, recommended in the resolution.

NELLIE MEETS NEW ACQUANTANCE CHAPTER 16

Enthusiastically Nellie thank Mr. Robinson for the pleasure he had given them, and made him laugh heartily at some of her comments. As she turned to her desk she caught the bookkeeper's eyes fixed upon her face, a strange warning sort of a look in their depths. But with a shrug she started to work.

"The poor nut," she said to herself. "He never wants anyone to smile or talk. He should be in an undertaker's place, or the morgue. His sour face makes me shiver."

But soon she had forgotten the thin, serious-faced man. Her work was going well. She was happy.

"About this time Cora, who had not been very well, lost her position. Not because she is not competent, but the firm's business had fallen off to an appreciable extent. Cora, being the last stenographer hired, was the first to be let go. They gave her a good reference and dismissed her with words of regret. It was a blow, a hard one. She had spent quite a bit on Nellie, more than she could afford, had she known she would be even a short time out of work. Her mother needed what she sent her, needed it to live in the simple economical way she lived at the Corners—her invalidism required food and medicine, dainty food that would keep up her strength.

"You must take a week and rest," Mrs. Thompson said kindly. The girls too urged her to remain quietly at home a few days before she tried for another position.

"Nellie and I can pay the expenses for a week, I guess," Gladys said and Nellie, her arms around Cora, begged her to stay in bed and let them wait upon her. But Cora was obdurate. She went at once to Miss McBride's agency, and with only one day lost found a position with a good firm, and two dollars a week advance. But the work was much harder. If this she, however said nothing. She must work. What was the use of grumbling?

"They aren't particularly kind. We are just machines, like our typewriters. But they are fair to those who do good work. They wouldn't keep me or any other girl a minute who didn't. There's no sentiment. They want what they pay for—and more."

"But thing of getting $15 a week?" Nellie said. "I wonder if I will ever be worth $15 of anybody's money?"

"Of course you will, if you keep on trying to improve." Cora encouraged "You type as well as I do, and if you work at your shorthand, look out for your spelling, you will soon get a raise."

"I think it would help, Nellie, if you'd talk in a more ladylike way," Gladys broke in. "In some offices your kidding would loose you your job. Save it for us, and that boy who walked home with you the other night. Who was he anyway?"

"Just an office boy in the building. He lives near here. You weren't thinking that kid was a beau, were you?"

"He's as old as you are, isn't he?"

"Maybe—I guess so! But boys like him don't know nothing. They're just silly kids. He said a funny thing, though," she frowned.

"What?" The girls weren't really very curious about each other affairs. They were, however, intensely interested.

"Why, he asked me where I worked, and when I told him he whistled, then said:

"That old guy keeps changing doesn't he? He has a new girl often than anybody in the building. Must be hard to work for."

"I told him he wasn't! Not a bit, that he was as kind as could be. Then he whistled again, and said:

"Look out for him! Them old fellows ain't being so awful kind to their stenogs for nothing—and what does his girls leave him for if he's so kind?"

"I told him they wasn't good stenogs most likely, but he didn't say nothing to that, just whistled again and then we was here. I wonder what he meant by them whistles? I'm going to ask him if I see him again."

Cora looked troubled. She had begun to feel a little uneasy about Nellie. Often she brought home flowers Mr. Robinson had given her, lovely blooms from the florists. Then too he had once more given her theater tickets, and once he had taken her to lunch. It was all innocent enough—but Nellie was so pretty, so bright and winning in spite of her impudence.

"I won't say anything—yet," Cora said to herself. "I won't put ideas into her head. She needs the money dreadfully and if she leaves he might not give her a reference."

Tomorrow—Cora Visits Mr. Robinson's Office.

THE reason so many critical music lovers prefer The Brunswick is not hard to find. It is all due to the Brunswick Method of Reproduction.

Tone is the chief reason for so many friends for The Brunswick. And tone depends largely upon the reproducer and the tone amplifier.

In both of these features Brunswick has gone far in advance. The Ultona plays all records, not confining you to one make. And it plays each exactly as intended, with the proper diaphragm, the proper needle. Best of all, it is not a hastily contrived makeshift, but a basic invention.

The Brunswick Tone Amplifier is built entirely of wood. It is oval shaped and moulded of rare hollywood—like the sounding board of a fine piano. The usual way is to make this throat of cast metal, a faulty way that brings metallic sounds.

You'll appreciate how far in advance The Brunswick is; you'll admire its superior tone. The proof of the pudding is—Hearing. All we ask you to do is to investigate The Brunswick with your own ears.
